IN MEMORY OF DAN CASE

THE FINEST CHIEF OF POLICE BRISBANE EVER HAD

IN THE QUESTION OF - NOT How - BUT WHY HE DIED

"The Silver and Gold - and The Precious Stones"
Thus sayeth The Lord - "Are Mine -
The Cattle on The Thousand Hills I Own
By Right - Divine.
And Men Themselves, Belong To Me -
They Hold From Me - A Lease
On Health - On Strength - And Even LIFE -
Which - AT My WORD -
May Cease!"

There is nothing to say when a friend goes away--
There is nothing to do but sigh.
There is nothing to do when a journey is through--
There is nothing to say, but goodbye.

POLICE CHIEF OF BRISBANE DIES IN CRASH:

Police Chief Daniel Wallace Case, aged 34, was killed instantly in an auto accident, while on a deer hunting trip in Butte County, early Sunday morning. Hiway officers reported that they found Case's body pinned under the wreckage of his machine which had rolled over a four-foot embankment on the Chico-Paradise Skyway shortly after midnight.

His two 18 year old hunting companions, Walter Purtell, and Donald Johnson, were in Oroville at the time of the accident. Clothing and other identification found at the scene of the wrecked car touched off a full-scale sheriff's posse search in the surrounding mountainous area for the two men believed to have wandered away after being injured. They were later discovered at an Oroville hotel. They said Case had left them to visit friends in the area. Case left his Brisbane home early Saturday on the hunting trip, and had planned on returning Monday morning.

Dan Case had served as police chief of Brisbane for nearly two years. He came here after serving in a similar law enforcement assignment in Wells, Nevada. A veteran of World War II, he was a member of the airforce reserve, and was scheduled for recall to active duty this month. He was active in community affairs, as a member of the Brisbane Lions Club and sponsor of several youth activities. He held membership in the California and Nevada Police Officer's association. A native of Mt. Emmons, Utah, Dan Case had attended school in Utah and Idaho before moving to California in 1928.

He is survived by his widow, Jean; his daughter, Nina, 5; his son, Daniel, 4; three sisters, Mrs. Lucille Jacobs, of Fort Bragg, Mrs. Renee Hatfield, of Tule Lake, and Mrs. Opal Montoya, of Oakland. Two brothers, Lloyd Case, of Dixon, and Lamont Case, of Tule Lake--all in California.

The body was returned to Nauman, Muzio and Lincoln Mortuary in South San Francisco for burial services. Military Services conducted by the American Legion Post #473, and the Brisbane Lion's Club were held on Wednesday evening at the chapel, amidst countless wreaths and clusters of flowers. The coffin was sealed, and flag draped. Dan Case's Police Chief cap, with it's gold shield, was on display. An impressive ceremony was held, with all Legionaires administering a final salute.

As this paper goes to press, plans are made for holding funeral services on Thursday at 2:30, followed by burial with full Military Honors at the Golden Gate National Cemetery.

(as reprinted in part from the San Mateo Times, and in part eye witness, your editor.)

And so we say goodbye to Dan Case--a man who has become so familiar to all of us that it seems hard to believe that we won't be seeing him on the next corner--or at the police office--or anywhere. We won't be having our quarrels with him---quarrels in which we would find ourselves getting red in the face, only to find him grinning at us, and saying that he had only been teasing--.

We say goodbye to the man who was always out helping some boy's club buy uniforms, or helping some organization raise funds for some good cause or other.

We say goodbye to the chief of police, who would stand for no nonsense when the safety of our citizens was at stake---but who would go to bat for one of our kids in trouble.

We say goodbye to the good citizen, who couldn't come right out an say who he wanted to vote for, for fear of stepping on someone's toes, or hurting somebody's feelings.

We say goodbye to the husband and father, who loved his wife and thought the sun rose and set in his children--who was indulgent and tender, but stern when it was needful.

We say goodbye to the man, Dan Case. And our thoughts must turn to the loved ones he left behind him. What can we say to them? He is just away?----or words of sympathy? Of what good are words, when the heart is gone? Shall we quote Longfellow, who said: "Be still, sad heart--and cease repining--
Behind the clouds, the sun is shining. Thy fate is the common fate of all--Into each life, some rain must fall! "--------and so-Goodbye.

DAN'S LAST PUBLIC ENDEAVOR:

In memory of Dan Case's last public endeavor, which he never got to finish, Mrs. Evelyn Pahlow, of 105 Visitacion Avenue, is carrying on his good work of trying to get at least 50 Brisbane residents to pledge one pint of blood each for the boys in Korea. Before Dan's untimely death, eighteen names had been signed to the list, but the roster of names must be complete before a bus can be chartered to take the donors to the nearest center. Plans are being made to label each pint of blood "DONATED BY A CITIZEN OF BRISBANE". We wish it were possible to add the words "IN MEMORY OF DAN CASE". If YOU are over eighteen, and in good health, won't you please send a card either to this paper, or to Mrs. Evelyn Pahlow, 105 Visitacion. LET'S FINISH DAN'S LAST UNCOMPLETED PUBLIC ACT FOR HIM--DONATE A PINT OF BLOOD FOR THE BOYS IN KOREA!

MASS EXODUS NOT PLANNED IN STATE DEFENSE:

(United Press Release)--
SACRAMENTO: OCT. 11--California's new civilian defense director doesn't believe there will be any plans for mass evacuations in the state's civil defense program.

If an atom bomb hits a major California city, Major General W.M.Robertson said today, the best place for those who escape injury is right where they are.

"Let's assume a bomb falls", he told newspapermen. "There are very heavy casualties in the inside area. It's cold-blooded, but those people are dead and we can't do anything about them.....

There are injured in the next ring, from burns or flying debris. We get them into temporary hospitals.....

In my opinion it's best that people who are not injured stay right where they are."

General Robertson said he couldn't visualize a mass evacuation. He said people couldn't be sent out into the "California desert to starve or die of thirst." And he said evacuation of hundreds of thousands of people to neighboring states "doesn't make sense".

If there is a long period of strained relations, he said there might be voluntary evacuation. Children in target area cities, he said, could be sent to relatives in less vulnerable spots.

General Robertson said one of the first jobs of the State Civilian Defense Office would be to make an inventory of all available supplies needed for civilian defense. Aid in money or supplies can't be expected from the Federal Government until about February.

The state's plan will go to regional directors and to mayors and sheriffs in about a month, he said. How fast the man in the street learns what he is to do in an emergency depends then on the local governments.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Mrs. Reece:

Thank you very much for printing my bits of philosophy in last week's Byline.

The following is something I've been wanting to do for quite some time:

I would like to thank the Brisbane Bus drivers for being so friendly, courteous, and accomodating. I appreciate this, and I am sure others,do also.

Thanks again,

Sincerely,

E. MOLYNEUX

POSERS:

I love him more than I can say,
But, oh, the questions day by day
He pops at me
While sitting wide-eyed on my knee,
On things he seeks to know the why for--
Like: "Da, what did the Dead Sea die for?"

And t'other night
With eyes all bright,
He heard it said, "The clock's run down";
Then turned from out a study brown,
And with a truly puzzled air
Asked, "Down to where?"

Again, once while we sat at tea,
I felt his eyes fixed full on me,
And from their depths all wondering
I knew a poser fierce would spring.
"Why do they call it T," said he
"Instead of X or Q or Z?"

But the hardest question I recall--
The very worst, I think, of all--
Was when he called me from my bed
At 4 A.M. one morn, and said;
"If you weren't you, and ma weren't ma,
Who'd I be, pa?"

SURPRISE!!

The Ladie's Missionary Society of the local Nazarene Church surprised Mrs. Reverend Lewis with cards, gifts, and a "Happy Birthday" cake recently. Mrs. Lewis's birthday was on October 11th.

Speaking of the Nazarene Church, did you see the parade last Saturday? The Nazarene Sunday School paraded down Visitacion Avenue with pennants and signs announcing the Sunday School Rally to be held this Sunday. Eighteen members marched in the parade. Men and women of Brisbane were waving out their windows as we went by.

MINSTREL SHOW TICKETS ON SALE:

Tickets are now on sale for the Brisbane P.-T.A. sponsored Minstrel Show, "PLANTATION DAYS", which is to be presented on Saturday, November 4th, at the Jefferson Union High School. As there are a limited number of tickets to be sold, due to the limited seating capacity--it would be wise to get your tickets now, from any glee club member, or from Mrs. Pistohl, chairman, or at the Luxury Cleaners, from Frank King, director of the show. Many of your friends are in the glee club and in the solo acts, and if you want to see them give a really professional performance; you'd better make sure of your tickets NOW!

WHY THE CHRISTMAS STREET LIGHTS WERE TAKEN DOWN:

According to Clint Stewart, Construction foreman for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph in this area, the Public Utilities Committee ordered the joint pole committees to remove the last year's Christmas lights due to violation of the safety code, and general order #95 so it fell heir to the telephone company to take them down, with the aid of the local Lion's club.

Quite a list of "friends" for one man to have, isn't it? And there will be more to come. If you have not yet donated, and you wish to do so---you may leave your donation, no matter how small--with FRED LAING at Laing's Fountain. Or there are the cans placed in stores, and on the local bus.

I think this is the reason why Brisbane is, what it is---the people of Brisbane have always managed to take care of their own. No matter how many collections have been made, so long as they were for good cause, Brisbane has come through. It sort of makes one feel secure--knowing one's loved ones will be cared for

RON WRIGHT'S SPORTS COLUMN:

Twenty-two of Brisbane's 6th, 7th, and 8th graders climbed on a chartered bus last Saturday morning and went to Orange Park to play the South San Francisco Warriors, the champions for the past three years. Although outweighed 30 pounds to the man in this game of Touch Football, our team held them to a 24 to 0 game.

Weakness in blocking accounted for scoreless Brisbane--but the will and fight displayed indicates winning games in the near future.

A practice game will be held this Saturday morning at the Rec with the 9th graders of Brisbane, at 10;00 A.M.

Jefferson High's under-rated team showed it's true power last Friday night when they beat the Sequoia team unmercifully by the score of 25 to 0. Sequoia, supposed to be the best in the P.A.L. was hardly a match for the "INDIANS" Although they had a fast team and good passers, no one seemed to be able to get under those passes. Jefferson will not play this week, but next week they will play their second league game, and will give their opponents a tougher going than they gave Sequoia!

Jefferson's Frosh-Soph won over the Columbia Boy's Club by the score of 40 to 0 in a very "close game" (?)--Coach McGraph wanted the team to sharpen up on their tackling and plays, but the Columbia team didn't give our boys much opposition. This Friday (today) the Frosh-Soph team will play Balboa at our field.

The BRISBANE TEEN-AGERS CLUB has a chance to be in the International organization of teen-agers, sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., and will be able to use all their facilities. So all of you local teen-agers, between the high school through college ages, come on down to the Teen-age Club meetings at the Rec. on Tuesday evenings.
